Special Meeting
January 14, 2019
5:30 p.m.

A special meeting of the Cambridge City Council was held on January 14, 2019 at Cambridge City Hall. The purpose of this special meeting was to hold a workshop on IRWA (Idaho Rural Water Association) Water Rate Study and Water System and Projects.

Present were Mayor Jack Toothman, Council President Mark Loveland, Jeff Chance, Gary Franklin, and Verl Cate. Also, present was City Clerk/Treasurer Sandra McKee, Ernie Houghton Public Works Superintendent (outgoing), Corey Morgan Public Works Superintendent (new), Shelly Roberts Executive Director of IRWA, Gary Sievers of IRWA, Dodd Snodgrass of CEDA, Andy Gehrke of HECO, Robert Almanzo of HECO, and some of the patrons listed on the sign-in of the regular meeting attendance form of the same evening arriving at various times.

Mayor Toothman called the meeting to order at 5:30 p.m. and Gary Franklin led the Pledge of Allegiance. The mayor explained that the purpose of this special meeting was to have a workshop on IRWA Water Rate Study and Water System and Projects. He turned the floor over to Gary Sievers and Shelly Roberts of IRWA to present the rate study they had done to the council. After much discussion of various alternatives in the rate study the council asked if one more scenario could be run of Scenario 2 with an equal ratio increase for all meters and to not include any “thousands” of gallons within the base rate. Also, an adjusted cost estimate of $1,750,000 is to be used.

The workshop concluded at 6:45 p.m.

Sandra McKee, City Clerk

Jack Toothman, Mayor
